Our readers have a lot to say about HOMES Magazine!
Here's a look at a testimonial letter we received...

Hello!! You've definitely inspired me!!

The "Extreme Colour" article in the November issue of your magazine has inspired me to do what I wouldn't normally. We moved into our new home two years ago and the walls are painted with the low cost builder's paint and they desperately need a paint job.

For months, I've been trying to figure out what colours I should choose. I've always been afraid of colour and stuck to the "extremely pale" as the article puts it. I've been convinced to try the new 2008 trends — the more "punchy" darker colours that I've always shied away from.

Thanks for this interesting article!
